

O.G. FUNK Audition Sides for AMMO

AMMO

Back home my father says that I need to cut out this silliness and get serious. My family owns a store. He wants me to take over but I am not sure if that's my route. That's why I came to the states to train with OG Chain Reaction...I know that my Dad went through a lot when he came from India to England with 60 pounds in his pocket. He built the store up from nothing. It would mean so much to him for me to continue it. But I don't feel that's all my destiny is about... I feel the funk and I want to get down... You know what I'm say'n?
