

O.G. FUNK Audition Sides for MOM

MOM

I called to talk. I know you don't think I like you. I have just always tried not to meddle in things... The truth is that you are like my daughter and I love you very much. You know I love your kids. I love all my grand kids. I know lately you two have been having some problems... and I try to stay out of these things. But I felt the need to talk to you before things go too far. Do you remember my husband before he died? Well... before he left us I was a real jerk to him. From all the years of him drinking and talking down to me, I felt anger towards him and that made him feel worthless. Then he found that bitch other women and left us. Like a coward he escaped. I will never forgive him for that but I can never forget that I was part of the reason. I loved him... and I punished him... until he couldn't take it anymore... Well... I don't wanna see that happen again. Do you understand?
