SUZY-Q

You don't understand...

Good job isn't acceptable. It is either perfect, or its shit.

Better you say! There's no doing better...

Damn, I just can't seem to nail it... I try and I try but I just can't get it.

And I'm not just trip'n!

You don't understand. I grew up in a Korean family that expects me to do everything the best. There is nothing less. If it's not perfect then it's failure... Failure... do you understand?
